Mr. TURPIE, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany H. R. 9779.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 9779) granting a pension to Mrs. Lydia N. Atkinson, have examined the same, and report :

From the facts stated in the House report, which is hereto attached and approved, we believe this is a meritorious measure, and do recommend the passage of the bill.

[House Report No. 2709, Fifty-first Congress, first session.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 9779) granting a pension to Lydia W. Atkinson, have considered the same, and report as follows :

The claimant's late husband, William D. Atkinson, was a private in Capt. Wm. C. Dawson's company of Col. William Porter's First Regiment Georgia Volunteers, Creek Indian war, and served therein 1 month and 23 days.

The evidence filed in support of the bill shows that the claimant is a sufferer from disease of the heart to such an extent that she can do no labor by which to support herself, and she is entirely destitute of means. Her identity as the soldier's widow is fully established. Her post office address is Atlanta, Ga.

The passage of the bill is recommended with the following amendment: Change the initial "W." in claimant's name to "N."
